Rural Industrialisation and Employment Generation

1355. SHRI SANGH PRIYA GAUTAM:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a work-shop on Rural Industrialisation and Employment Generation involving Members of Parliament was organised from 3rd February to 6th February, 1992 at National Institute of Rural Development at Hyderabad;

(b) if so, what are the recommendations made and the steps taken to implement them?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI G. VENKAT SWAMY): (a) Yes. A workshop on Rural Industrialisation and Employment Generation was organised from 3rd February to 6th February, 1992 at National Institute of Rural Development, Hyderabad in which twenty seven Members of Parliament participated.

(b) Summary of recommendations made during the workshop on Rural Industrialisation and Employment Generation are given in the Statement (See below). Recommendations need to be examined for further appropriate action.

Statement

Summary of the recommendations of the workshop of Rural Industrialisation and Employment Generation.

1. Evolving a plan for harmonious balance between agricultural growth and rural industrialisation.

2. More rational and equitable distribution a of land assets through land reforms as a vigorous stimulant to rural industrialisation.

3. Imparting special attention to health and family planning so as to ensure that gains of rural industrialisation and rural development are not frittered away.

4. Monitoring of wage employment programmes by an agency set up by the Government.

5. Provision of adequate training facilities to make the IRDP schemes viable.

6. Formation of cooperatives of the producers for specific agricultural products to assist in the acquisition of inputs, processing of output and sale at reasonable prices.

7. Complete de-regulation of rural Industries. However, all regulations in the public interest like pollution control, weights and measures, health regulation etc. be implemented through village Management Committee.

8. Provision of banking facilities and telecommunication within the reach of rural areas.

9. Setting up of an efficient organisation to implement the above recommendations as per the local conditions in different regions of the country.

सड़कों को गांवों से नहीं जोड़ा जाना

1357. डा० जिनेन्द्र कुमार जैन:

श्री रणजोत सिंह :

क्या प्रधान मंत्री यह बताने की कृपा करेंगे कि :

(क) क्या यह सच है कि देश में बड़ी संख्या में गांवों को मुख्य सड़क-मार्गों से नहीं जोडा गया है;
